

Another Big Three Meeting Has Been Arranged

Settlement of Polish Problem Virtually Assured, President Tells Newsmen After Report by Harry Hopkins

WASHINGTON, June 13.—(AP)—President Truman announced today that a Big Three meeting has been set, but he said he could not announce the time or place until his arrival there.

The President also told a news conference that he expected the meeting at Moscow this Friday to work out a unified Polish government on a broad base to produce results.

In obvious good humor following an earlier conference with Harry Hopkins and Joseph E. Davies, his representatives to Moscow and London, the President told the reporters the results they had obtained have been completely satisfactory and gratifying.

He said he would take Secretary of State Edward R. Stettin, Jr., James F. Byrnes, former war mobilizer, Hopkins and Davies to the Big Three meeting with him, the latter two if their health permits.

The President said the all important thing was that London, Washington and Moscow continue the unity, confidence and respect which brought results in the military picture to make sure a lasting peace.

He, Marshal Stalin and Prime Minister Churchill, he said, must trust each other.

Discussing last night's announcement regarding the forthcoming meeting of American, Russian and British representatives with three groups of Polish representatives, the President said he thought we are on the way to a complete settlement of that issue.

He said that while no members of the present Polish government in London were invited to the meeting, the United States still recognizes the London-Polish government.

YANKS CRASH LAST OKINAWA DEFENSES

Meandering Along the Main Stem

By WASH FAYETTE

Ralph Deakne, 224 Draper Street, has a way with turtles. He can catch 'em like nobody's business and his latest prize is a 19-pound "snapper" creek turtle which he said he caught only five miles from Washington C. H.

That turtle was a wicked thing. Its head was as big as a baseball and its tail looked like it should have belonged to a miniature dinosaur. Deakne said there probably would be about ten pounds of succulent turtle meat when the shell had been discarded.

The 19-pound turtle was the largest Deakne ever has caught. He is an expert, though. He said every summer he caught from 300 to 350 turtles, most of which he sold after he had cleaned them. The price, incidentally, is 50 cents a pound.

Where he gets the turtles, Deakne isn't telling. He doesn't want anyone to barge in on his happy hunting ground. Especially when some turtles are so elusive. He was on the prowl for his 19-pound turtle for a week before he caught it.

Deakne catches his turtles with nets and handles them like so many sacks of meal after he captures them. That 19-pounder was a field day for him. He heaved it around and displayed its wrinkled charms as if it were a prize race horse. But he kept his distance from the beaked mouth.

And turtle meat isn't anything to turn up your nose at in these days of rationing.

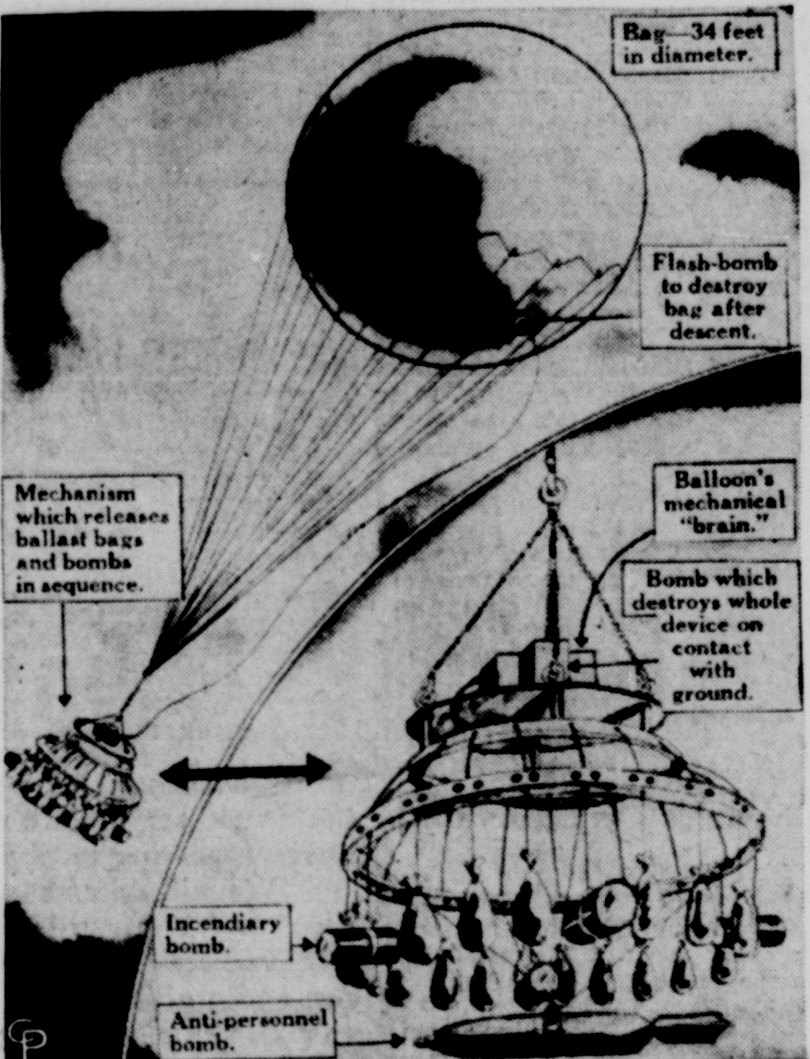

He used to be a Boy Scout, proud of his khaki uniform and proud of troop—Troop 170 which is sponsored by the fire department.

Now he wears another khaki uniform with one stripe on his sleeve which makes him Pfc. Wendell Kimball, the son of Mrs. Noah S. Stant, 323 East Market Street.

He has been wearing that army khaki less than a year—he entered the army August 12, 1944—but he was in Germany during the battle of the Belgian bulge and saw some of the heaviest fighting during last February and March.

Pfc. Kimball still remembers those Boy Scout days. That is pretty evident in a letter he sent to George Hall, fire chief and scoutmaster. He enclosed a German mark with which American soldiers are paid in Germany. He also sent a shoulder patch which used to adorn an SS trooper's uniform. It is round and red with an angular "S" in the middle. There still are some brown threads attached to it where it was sewed to the Nazi's shirt.

He spoke in that letter of living in a house again and of "sweating out the Pacific." Pfc. Kimball doesn't want to start jungle-fighting—he was frank about that. "I sure don't want to go to the Pacific but neither do I want to go to the other fellows and I don't think I'm any better than anyone else."

Veterans' Hospitals Not So Bad as Claimed Investigators Assert

HAMILTON, June 13.—(AP)—Thomas H. Feltz, Ohio commander of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, said today after an investigation of three veterans' hospitals in the state that he found "nothing to substantiate" a charge by Rep. Clarence Remy (R-O) that John H. Ale, head of the Dayton home, "treated veterans like dogs."

Remy made his accusation in Washington yesterday.

Feltz, member of a 10-man investigating committee, said he found Ohio institutions generally undermanned, that some classes of employees were underpaid, but that food, equipment and maintenance for the most part were satisfactory.

Of the hospital at Brecksville, Feltz said "three or four staff physicians"—whom he did not name—were "not too friendly with the veterans" and that his report would recommend their transfer.

NEW CUTS COMING ON CIVILIAN TRAVEL

WASHINGTON, June 13.—(AP)—Another big segment of civilian travel will be sidetracked in August to make way for the Tokyo Express.

Half the present number of Pullman cars and 10 to 12 per cent of the railroad coaches will be withdrawn from civilian use from August until about March, 1946, for military purposes.

A growing pinch in air travel is also coming. J. Monroe Johnson, director of the Office of Defense Transportation predicted yesterday at a news conference.

The diverted railroad cars will be used as troop carriers in organized movements averaging 308,000 men daily as the Army's redeployment of forces to the Pacific gets into stride, Johnson said.

The ODT director deprecated reports that spring wheat had been dumped on the ground in Oklahoma because of lack of storage space and grain cars.

"There never was a harvest year that there wasn't some grain on the ground," Johnson asserted.

Nips Admit Defeat and on Borneo They 'Scorch Earth' In Desperation

By LEONARD MILLIMAN (By the Associated Press)

Simultaneously American pre-dawn attacks on both flanks of Yaeju Plateau caught the Japanese napping and apparently cracked the enemy's last ditch defense line on Okinawa, front dispatches reported today.

The Japanese came to life at daybreak and attacked with machineguns and knee mortars. But it was too late.

Cliff-scaling Seventh Division infantrymen held the eastern anchor of the Nipponese suicide line. First Division Marines were astride a ridge at the western anchor three miles away. And from the north, American field artillery unleashed one of the heaviest barrages of the campaign against two concentrations of the 10,000 to 15,000 enemy troops dug into caves atop the plateau.

In 36 hours battling for the slope of one hill, 137 men in a single Marine company, including all of its officers, were killed or wounded. That is more than half the company's strength.

Jap Blow Up

Japanese, including at least one woman in soldier's uniform, charged Marine lines during the night with satchel charges. They blew up like firecrackers when hit.

Machinings were packed to the top of the escarpment on the backs of Yanks scaling ropes, hand over hand. Tankmen brought flame-spraying 500-foot hose extensions connected with their tanks at the base of the cliff.

The Okinawa battle was so nearly ended that Tokyo turned its back on the Mikado's dying garrison, 325 miles south of Japan.

The enemy radio switched its theme to the menace of a homeland invasion. It quoted the Nippon (Please Turn to Page Two)

FARM FOOD BUYERS MAY GET C RATIONS

WASHINGTON, June 13.—(AP)—Wholesale buyers of farm products who perform skilled and essential services in marketing were declared eligible for full "preferred" or C mileage gasoline rations by the OPA today.

Farm marketing agents, including cooperatives, were accorded the same privilege for travel to the farms of growers whom they represent in order to direct the harvesting, grading, packing and shipping of fresh fruits and vegetables if those services are necessary in the marketing of crops.

Wholesale buyers will be granted enough gasoline for travel necessary in the grading, inspection and classification of products as essential steps in the purchase. Those who have bought a growing crop or one to be planted may also obtain the mileage for travel to farms to supervise the planting, growing and shipping.

CROSLY MERGER EXPECTED SOON

New York Company Said To Absorb It

CINCINNATI, June 13.—(AP)—The Times Star says "reports were current in Cincinnati and New York financial circles today that a deal for absorption of the Crosley Corporation by Aviation Corporation, New York holding company, was nearing completion."

The deal would involve an exchange of stock in which Crosley shareholders would receive five shares of Aviation Corporation stock for each Crosley share, the paper said, adding that "based on the present market valuation of Aviation Corporation stock at $8 per share . . . it would involve between $22,000,000 and $30,000,000."

Crosley officials were silent.

Loan Settled for $4,000 By Late President's Son

NEW YORK, June 13.—(AP)—Caruthers Ewing, general counsel for The Great Atlantic and Pacific Tea Co., says a $200,000 loan to Brig. Gen. Elliott Roosevelt from John Hartford, president of the A. and P., was settled for $4,000.

Hartford yesterday termed "substantially correct" a story in Westbook Pegler's column syndicated by King Features, that the son of the late president borrowed the $200,000 in 1939. Roosevelt could not be reached for comment.

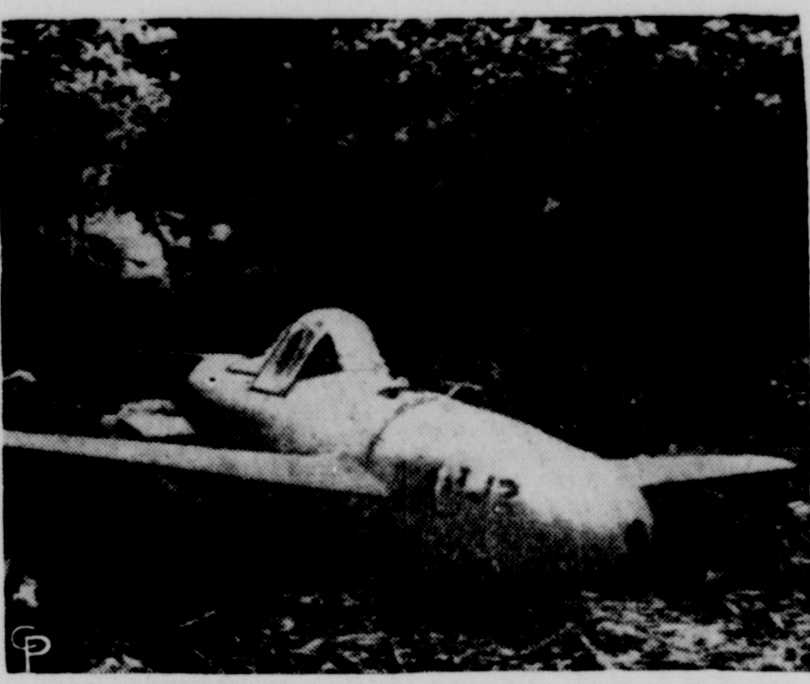

Pegler's account "is not the whole story but it is substantially correct," Hartford said, adding, "I regret very much that it has been published."

Ewing said in Danville, Ill., that the debt was settled three years later "at the request of the Roosevelt family," through the then secretary of commerce, Jesse Jones.

Ewing said Elliott Roosevelt, then 29, secured the loan to finance his Texas radio interests. "They were losing money hand over fist," Ewing added.

He said that in 1942 Jones told him the Roosevelt family wanted to compromise the debt and he took young Roosevelt's note and stock collateral to Jones who "gave me a check payable to John Hartford."

COMMUNITY-WIDE PRAYER BRINGS VITAL RAINFALL TO GEORGIA FARM TOWN

METTER, Ga., June 13.—(AP)—There was rejoicing here today. The devout said: "The Lord saw fit to answer our prayers. We are humble."

The devout, incidentally, includes all the 2,500 people in this town.

Not since May 13 had this community, this rich agricultural county, had rain. The crops were ruined, or near ruin.

Yesterday was set aside as a day of community-wide prayer services. Stores and shops were closed so people could go to the service.

Then, before the end of the day, the rains came—drenching rains which refreshed the hungry red Georgia earth, gave life to the wilted and burnt tobacco and corn stalks.

CLEVELAND, June 13.—(AP)—A stray lamb, found near Public Square where it caused motorists to stop for fear of running over red points, was in the hands of the Animal Protective League today.

The little fellow gambled and lost, for unless someone can prove ownership it will furnish crops for a hospital or charitable institution.

SERVICEMEN'S WIVES HIDE ILLEGITIMATE CHILDREN LEGALLY

Columbus Judge Reveals Four Adoption Cases

COLUMBUS, June 13.—(AP)—At least four Columbus wives of servicemen have borne illegitimate children and had them placed for adoption by Franklin County Probate court without the knowledge or consent of their absent husbands, according to Probate Judge C. P. McClelland.

The Ohio State Journal today quoted the judge as saying he had approved four adoptions after case testimony convinced him that the husbands of the women involved could not have been the fathers of the children.

The army newspaper, Stars and Stripes, recently criticized the California House of Representatives for passing a bill to permit a married woman to give an illegitimate child for adoption without notifying her husband.

The Stars and Stripes editors were quoted as saying, "When a responsible legislative assembly passes a bill which denies a husband the right to know that his wife has just come up with someone else's baby, we think the whole situation is getting out of hand."

"The court must look to the welfare of the child," the judge said in an interview, adding: "In the eyes of the law the children were fatherless, and for that reason it was unnecessary to serve the husbands with legal notice of adoption proceedings."

Loan Settled for $4,000 By Late President's Son

WASHINGTON, June 13.—(AP)—War planes and "related equipment" which cost the government almost a billion dollars have been declared surplus and are up for sale.

This is disclosed in the first comprehensive report of the surplus property board made to Congress.

A summary appearing in the Congressional Record today, inserted by Chairman O'Mahoney in the Senate war contracts committee, showed that war goods costing approximately $265,000,000 were sold during a 10-month period ended March 31.

LAUSCHE FEARS GROWING COSTS OF GOVERNMENT

Salary Boosts for County Officials Approved by Ohio Senate

By REED SMITH

COLUMBUS, June 13.—(AP)—Gov. Frank J. Lausche sent his veto of the much-discussed Daniels-Cramer school bill to the Ohio Senate today in the face of strong prospects that it might be overridden immediately.

Sen. Virgil E. Cramer (R-Lucas), co-sponsor of the measure with Sen. Albert L. Daniels (R-Highland), said: "We've decided what we are going to do about the veto. The action might come today. I don't think there's any doubt about the outcome."

House of Representatives leaders have predicted the veto would be snowed under in that chamber. Twenty votes are required to override in the Senate and 82 in the House.

Introduced last January 22, the bill increasing subsidies to schools was passed by the Senate 27-4 on April 4, and by the House 105-20 on May 29.

Anticipated for several weeks, Lausche's veto message, announced late yesterday, said that unless he were sustained by the legislature, "the lobbyists for the school bill will figuratively have written their own check and procured the signature of the state of Ohio to it in strict accordance with every letter, comma, and period of their demand."

He described as "unreasonable" the total of $117,156,666 he said the measure would grant for the 1945-46 and 1946-47 school years, a $15,357,516 increase over school expenditures in the preceding two years.

He added that his final recommendation was $109,759,208 for the next two school years, compared with $101,118,000 he said was available the previous two school years.

Lausche estimated that the cost of government during the (Please Turn to Page Two)

TRUMAN FROWNS ON COST PLUS SYSTEM

President Wants Amendment Thrown Out

WASHINGTON, June 13.—(AP)—The cost-plus system for farm production written into pending OPA extension legislation was termed bad today by President Truman.

The Chief Executive expressed hope at a news conference that the amendment by Senator Wherry (R., Neb.), will be thrown out by the House.

Wherry declared he will "fight to the last ditch" for his amendment.

He challenged a farm official's declaration that the amendment, adopted Monday by the Senate, was "a legislative fraud." That criticism was voiced before the House Banking committee yesterday by James G. Patton, president of the National Farmers Union. Edward A. O'Neal, American Farm Bureau president, asserted the amendment was unsound, unworkable and inflationary.

BILL SUPPORTED BY A. B. MURRAY TO LEGISLATURE

Hearing and Vision Tests of School Children Asked in Law

A. B. Murray, superintendent of city schools, spoke in support of a senate bill asking more thorough health examinations of school children at a meeting of the House Education Committee in Columbus Tuesday night.

The bill, introduced by Senator Mahoney, is one of a series to revise the statutes relating to children by enacting supplemental sections of the General Code so as to test the hearing and vision of school children where school health examinations are made.

Speaking for the boards of education, Murray said "We favor very strongly more thorough health examinations and better hearing and vision tests." He emphasized the importance of finding any defects early in the child's school career so that remedies could be made. He spoke of the Lions Club here which provided glasses for needy children.

While he praised the "very excellent" pre-school examinations conducted by Miss Gretchen Darlington, county health nurse, Murray stressed the need for at least one or two more health nurses. "It is vital for the health of the school children in the city and in the county," Murray said.

He spoke of the P-TA council's urging the board of education to arrange more thorough health examinations and said that the board had discussed the possibility of setting up a school health department with an eye to giving each student a thorough physical examination at least once a year.

Murray was invited to speak by the Ohio Children's Code Commission, an organization interested in legislation for the welfare of children. M. M. Berry, superintendent of Chillicothe Schools; N. P. Blatt, superintendent of New Lexington Schools; Frazier Reams, state welfare director; Esther McClain, executive director of the Ohio Children's Code Commission; Hazel C. McIntire, director of the special education division of the State Department of Education and Dr. I. L. Bauman, state health director, also were there.

The Mahoney bill, which Murray and the others endorsed, provides that if any parents wish to have their child examined by their family physician, a certificate of such an examination would be accepted by school authorities in lieu of examination by a school physician. Similar methods of testing and a uniform manner of keeping records were recommended by the State Department of Health.

DON'T DUMP LITTER INTO THE GUTTERS

Gentle Hint Is Given by Police Chief Long

Calling attention to the city ordinance against littering the streets with rubbish, Police Chief Vaiden Long said Wednesday that in a few instances sweepings from places of business have been dumped into the gutters in direct violation of the law.

Apparently many people have become accustomed to throwing waste paper and other refuse into the gutters and upon the streets, and the police plan to keep a closer eye on such offenders.

BACKERS OF SCHOOL BILL SAY VETO WON'T STAND UP; LAUSCHE CITES EXPENSES

next two years would be increased at least $40,000,000 by the Daniels-Cramer bill, salary advances and other listed expenditures.

The governor recalled that elementary school attendance was 9 1/2 percent below 1940 and high schools 20 percent less, and predicted that enrollments would advance after the war. He asserted that provisions of the Daniels-Cramer bill would cost $132,000,000 for a two-year period on the basis of 1940 enrollments.

Other objections advanced by the governor included grants to "wealthy" school districts under the new bill which he said didn't need them.

Besides the $15,357,516 the governor said the Daniels-Cramer bill would increase governmental costs, he itemized another $20,732,000 as follows:

- $11,600,000 for salary increases of classified state employees;
- $2,000,000 for unclassified employee salary adjustments and for university maintenance;
- $1,600,000 to put public employees retirement fund on actuarial basis;
- $3,658,000 for new mental hospitals at Youngstown, Tiffin and temporary buildings at other institutions;
- $419,000 for expanded vocational education;
- $500,000 to townships needing additional money;
- $325,000 to bring Ohio State Guard enlistments to legal limit;
- $700,000 additional for control of Bangs disease in cattle.

The governor also pointed out that to those two totals must be added anticipated increase to local governments in sales tax revenue distributions.

A bill to grant such increases headed for a conference committee of both houses of the legislature in an attempt to work out an acceptable compromise figure. The house voted for $12,000,000 annually. The Senate insisted on $18,000,000.

Legislation to permit Christian Science practitioners to charge for their services was defeated for a second time in the House. The vote was 60 yes to 55 no, with 69 affirmative votes needed for passage. The measure was sponsored by Rep. W. S. Paxson (R-Fayette).

The House completed passage of a bill by Sen. C. Stanley Mechem (R-Athens) to create a 15-member small business commission to encourage such enterprises and report recommendations by January 15, 1947. A Senate-approved bill providing that Mount Vernon Sanatorium be used for the care of mentally ill tuberculars also was passed by the House.

The Senate approved salary increases for elective county officials and sent the bill to the House.

Sponsored by Sen. Ralph A. Winter (R-Medina), the measure carries an emergency clause making it effective upon passage by the House and signing by the governor, although present officeholders can not participate in the proposed increases.

Winter estimated the measure would increase salaries about 16 percent, with smaller counties getting the biggest boosts, and cost an additional $385,000 when all raises become effective in 1949. County officials had asked a flat 25 percent increase.

Only county treasurers taking office next September would benefit by the increases this year. Winter said. They would get a total of about $15,000 additional. Next year the increase would amount to $58,000 for treasurers and a few other officers but all would benefit by 1949, he said. Increases are based on a sliding scale according to population.

Salary floors were provided at $1,200 for county commissioners and $2,100 for county engineers. Ceilings were: $6,500 for county clerks, recorders and commissioners; $7,000 for county treasurers and sheriffs, and $7,500 for county auditors, prosecutors and engineers.

Stationary steam engineers and boiler operators would be licensed by a state board of examiners under a measure passed by the Senate and sent to the House.

The Senate also passed 22-10 a bill by Rep. Robert W. Dunkle (R-Ross) to permit use of bay-window type cabooses on railroad freight trains. The House previously had approved the measure.

30 JAPS ARE KILLED BY SINGLE YANK IN ONE-MAN MASSACRE

how Craft almost single-handedly wiped out a strong Japanese pocket in 10 to 15 minutes.

Craft, married and the father of a 4-year-old son, made his one-man assault on a 450-foot hill May 31 when elements of the 96th infantry division were pinned down by fire.

For 10 days, Japanese from this hill had held up two battalions.

On May 31, a company and two platoons assaulted the hill again.

Then Craft went into action. When he reached the hilltop, he began tossing grenades into trenches and foxholes as men from his platoon passed them up to him. He straddled a trench, pouring fire from Garand down into it. Then he jumped in, mowing down Japanese as they got to him. He knocked out a heavy machinegun and his crew as he strode through the trench. He drove the Japanese he didn't kill into a hillside cave, then sealed it with a demolition charge.

Fifty-eight Japanese bodies, three "knee" mortars, three machineguns, about 80 rifles and ammunition littered the hill when the fight was over. Craft estimated he killed 25 Japanese with rifle fire; the remainder with grenades.

tuberculars also was passed by the House.

The Senate approved salary increases for elective county officials and sent the bill to the House.

Sponsored by Sen. Ralph A. Winter (R-Medina), the measure carries an emergency clause making it effective upon passage by the House and signing by the governor, although present officeholders can not participate in the proposed increases.

Winter estimated the measure would increase salaries about 16 percent, with smaller counties getting the biggest boosts, and cost an additional $385,000 when all raises become effective in 1949. County officials had asked a flat 25 percent increase.

Only county treasurers taking office next September would benefit by the increases this year. Winter said. They would get a total of about $15,000 additional. Next year the increase would amount to $58,000 for treasurers and a few other officers but all would benefit by 1949, he said. Increases are based on a sliding scale according to population.

Salary floors were provided at $1,200 for county commissioners and $2,100 for county engineers. Ceilings were: $6,500 for county clerks, recorders and commissioners; $7,000 for county treasurers and sheriffs, and $7,500 for county auditors, prosecutors and engineers.

Stationary steam engineers and boiler operators would be licensed by a state board of examiners under a measure passed by the Senate and sent to the House.

The Senate also passed 22-10 a bill by Rep. Robert W. Dunkle (R-Ross) to permit use of bay-window type cabooses on railroad freight trains. The House previously had approved the measure.

Craft, married and the father of a 4-year-old son, made his one-man assault on a 450-foot hill May 31 when elements of the 96th infantry division were pinned down by fire.

For 10 days, Japanese from this hill had held up two battalions.

On May 31, a company and two platoons assaulted the hill again.

Then Craft went into action. When he reached the hilltop, he began tossing grenades into trenches and foxholes as men from his platoon passed them up to him. He straddled a trench, pouring fire from Garand down into it. Then he jumped in, mowing down Japanese as they got to him. He knocked out a heavy machinegun and his crew as he strode through the trench. He drove the Japanese he didn't kill into a hillside cave, then sealed it with a demolition charge.

Fifty-eight Japanese bodies, three "knee" mortars, three machineguns, about 80 rifles and ammunition littered the hill when the fight was over. Craft estimated he killed 25 Japanese with rifle fire; the remainder with grenades.

Borneo Earth Scorched

Simultaneously Japanese adopted scorched earth tactics in one of the finest oil fields on newly-invaded Borneo.

Nipponese set fire to tanks in Borneo's Seria oil fields, capable of producing 6,000,000 barrels a year, when invading Australian forces were 60 miles away and cut off by thick jungles.

Occasional strong Japanese pockets have furnished the only resistance so far in the Borneo campaign, but Lt. Gen. Morshead foresaw a "tedious and arduous campaign" for his Australian troops who must contend with swamps, jungles, and tropical forests as well as the enemy.

Anticipating defeat, Japanese set fire to Seria oil field tanks. Associated Press War Correspondent James Hutcheson counted 18 fires last night.

THE WAR TODAY

By DEWITT MACKENZIE

By J. M. ROBERTS, JR.
(Substituting for MacKenzie)

Japanese propagandists have been threatening their people with an imminent American invasion although they know that we are not yet set for climactic action.

They intend to use the next few months to prepare in every way which our bombers will permit. They make much of forming a civilian defense army (like Germany's which only got in the way of regular troops when the showdown came.) But they say nothing of the two or three classes of men in reserve and in war plants that now face active duty.

With the end of the Okinawa campaign and the arrival of the monsoons in southeast Asia, we probably are entering a period of great preparation rather than great deeds. The possibility (and it is only a possibility) of some action to help the Chinese on the mainland coast was discussed in this column recently. Continued activity in the Indies is likely, but the recapture of Java probably depends largely on the speed of the Borneo campaign and whether or not Java can be invaded before the forces required will be needed for the Tokyo job.

The Japanese have important forces—some 250,000 men—in Malaya, Indo-China and Thailand. The British can be expected to continue and enlarge their Burma campaign in this direction, with the possibility of some help from the Chinese to the northeast. But any major action between now and September will be hampered by the rains.

Knowing, then, that the Japanese people will be unable to see the massing of Allied millions about them, the enemy propagandists are trying to make it appear that General Buckner and his 10th army will stride directly from the smoking battlefields of Okinawa to the main islands. His failure to do so will be portrayed as a great victory for the Japanese navy and air force; the people will be too frightened to grumble over a ration situation which obviously is becoming serious; politicians will rest more securely in their jobs (although after Okinawa's fall it is likely this will apply more to Suzuki's successor); and some progress will be made on a Japanese "Volksturm" which won't be armed entirely with sharpened bamboo.

And behind the scenes, without benefit of propaganda, real armies and real defenses will be so strengthened that the mere thought of them will cause grim lines along the jaws of our own commanders.

INDIA-BASED FORTS MOVED TO TINIAN

Record-breaking Flight Is Completed Without Loss

GUAM, June 13—(P)—The first Superfortresses to make a combat strike at Japan have been transferred from India bases to the Marianas where they are joining other B-29's in the mounting attacks on the enemy's homeland, the 21st Bomber Command announced today.

They are the 150 bombers of the 58th bombardment wing, now based on the Marianas Island of Tinian north of Guam.

Led by Brig. Gen. Roger M. Ramey, wing commander, the big bombers made the 3,600-mile flight—most of it over hostile territory—without the loss of a plane.

The mass transfer of the old 20th Bomber Command to Maj. Gen. Curtis Le May's 21st Bomber Command was called one of the greatest of aerial migrations and set an outstanding safety record for the air forces.

World Peace Conference Analyzed for Rotarians

Hazy ideas about the real purpose of the United Nations Conference at San Francisco, and many foggy notions concerning the activities of this important gathering and the attitude of certain diplomats representing different nations there, were dispelled in the minds of his hearers at the Rotary luncheon Tuesday at the

Dr. John S. Moore

Country Club when Dr. John S. Moore, lecturer and traveler who represented a group of newspapers at the conference, spoke to club members and guests on what this great gathering was attempting to accomplish.

Dr. Moore who is referred to as a constructive internationalist in some of the comments made by various writers concerning him is a confident exponent of the theory that men will find a way to a better organized and decent world through better international understanding which he asserts can be secured only through an organization such as that now being set up at San Francisco.

Building Framework

He made clear in his talk that what was being attempted at San Francisco was not the formation of an organization which would solve all world questions immediately and which would be the perfect answer to satisfy every nation and all the scores of pressure groups which were pushing for special recognition, but rather merely the framework or foundation for the building of a great world organization in the near future which would do more to maintain peace and help solve troublesome economic questions than ever has been attempted before.

Dr. Moore went to Europe first in 1926 as a member of the American Seminar of which Dr. Sherwood Eddy was director.

He went to Geneva almost every summer for many years and has become an authority on the Geneva movement and the philosophy underlying it. For several summers he sat in the press gallery of the League Assembly representing a chain of Ohio papers.

During the summers of 1933, '34, '36 he went into Germany as a fellow of the Oberlander Trust, Inc., a non-political American foundation that makes possible an exchange of editors, scientists, teachers, artists, publicists between Germany and America for cultural purposes primarily.

Toured the Orient

In 1935 he toured the Orient going through Japan, China and far into Manchuria. In 1933 he represented the papers of former governor James M. Cox at the London Economic Conference.

Forum Directors under the supervision of Dr. John M. Studebaker, Federal Commissioner of Education, selected Mr. Moore as one of the experts on world affairs and he led federal forums in Ohio, Minnesota, Iowa, New Mexico, California and New Jersey.

During the last dozen years he has represented the League of Nations Association in the Central West and has probably addressed more colleges, high schools, churches, forums, service clubs, women's clubs, and other thoughtful groups on international problems than any other person in this section. Mr. Moore's last trip to Europe was in 1939. He barely escaped out of Poland as the Germans came in. War was declared when he was at sea.

In December 1943 Mr. Moore was an invited observer at the Conference of The Rehabilitation and Relief Administration at Atlantic City, attended by delegates from 39 nations.

Location 'Stroke of Genius'

In his talk concerning the San Francisco Conference the speaker said that it was a stroke of genius to place this conference on the Pacific Coast, where men perform miracles. Here men build bridges eight miles long, hang them to the clouds and swing them out across the sea. If you are going to destroy war and organize the world you must perform miracles, you must do heroic and revolutionary things. "I think this conference caught something of this spirit of the Golden Gate," he stated.

Dr. Moore asserted that this is not a peace conference; there is much confusion at this point. It is a meeting of the 50 United Nations to write the constitution of a world organization that we hope in time will become strong enough and universal enough to remove the causes of war and stop the aggressors, like Hitler, Mussolini and Hirohito.

He said that the conference brought together 1,200 delegates, advisers, technicians, diplomats and statesmen; over 2,600 journalists, radio operators, photographers; beside several thousand unofficial people connected with pressure groups. In San Francisco were men of all sizes, colors, nationalities, united in one objective. The traditional and generous hospitality of the west was at its best.

Molotov Most Colorful

"Molotov was probably the most colorful figure," said Dr. Moore. "There was nothing striking or dramatic about him. You might think him a small town business man. I saw no bird nests in his unkempt Russian beard for he is beardless. I am shocked upon my return to find a widespread whispering campaign going on against Russia, for we didn't sense it at San Francisco. We knew the Polish dispute was befogging the situation but we knew also that it has nothing to do with the conference.

"I remind my American friends that Joseph Stalin has moved into the neighborhood. He has taken over a house and proposes to stay. As neighbors we can try to understand him, to be friendly or we can throw stones through his windows as we are now doing.

Whispering Campaign

"I am suspicious of this ugly whispering campaign. Senator Bob La Follette spoke three hours the other day in the Senate against the new league, most of the effort was to frighten America against Russia. Isn't this the beginning of the indirect method of attack of 1920? It is not to be a frontal attack. Besides there are powerful economic interests that would like to frighten us against Communism. I am not a Communist, far from it, but I do believe in giving every dog his due. If Uncle Sam supports the new league as well as I believe the Russians will do I will be happy.

"The American delegation does well. Stettinius will come out of the conference with considerable prestige. He is not a great diplomat and has no international background but he is a good executive; he held the conference together and I think will continue to do so. There are no signs of a permanent rift; there will be none. Delegates will stay about the table until they agree. Stassen is the clearest and most courageous thinker in the American delegation. Keep your eye on that Swede! Vandenberg rose splendidly above partisan interests; he surprised all of us. He was constantly saying: 'We must get on with this business; nothing must keep us from the main objective; the American people demand it.' He is an able man. You women can be happy over the work of Dean Gildersleeve. She knows her business. Other members of the American delegation didn't cut much figure, but I think they will play the game."

Younger Men Praised

In further explanation of the conference activities, Dr. Moore said, "There was something new in diplomatic history at San Francisco and I give the younger men in the state department credit for this innovation. They were wise enough to recognize that perhaps other groups in America knew something about the problem, so the state department invited 46 national organizations to send consultants who were not official but sat concurrently with the American delegation in the same hotel. There was a constant exchange of views. Among organizations represented were: educators, Council of Churches, Catholics, Jews, League of Women Voters, YWCA, University women, farmers, laborers, Chamber of Commerce, etc. These American consultants made a distinct contribution to the entire conference.

"I listened to the address by Molotov opposing the entrance of Argentina and all of his arguments were sound. He asked for delay but the Latins had agreed at Mexico City in February that they would present a united front at San Francisco and the United States evidently concurred. The Latins insisted that technically Argentina could be admitted, she could do no harm inside and perhaps it would do her some good. Nelson Rockefeller, a splendid chap, had much to do with this decision.

World Court Model

"We will have a new world court modeled largely after the old world court. It will sit at the old site at the Hague in Holland. A new set of judges will be elected, although no doubt some of the old judges will be re-elected. The basic court question is whether the court will have the authority to make compulsory decisions. America stands almost alone in opposing this method.

"The ugliest dispute in the conference is the question of the veto rights of the great powers. I agree that this is not democratic but it is realistic. If we are to get a world organization strong enough to stop the Hitler the great powers will have to create it and back it. There is no other alternative and if this is so, then the great powers must act as a unit and they must decide when guns are to be used, for they will have to furnish the guns. A united front on the part of the great powers is essential. Also they reserve the right to say where and when an examining commission is to be sent. This does not preclude the right of any nation insisting on the examination of a dangerous situation. As time goes on the small nations will see the soundness of this method and the inevitability of it.

"When the San Francisco meeting ends the new charter will go before national governments for approval or rejection. It is assumed that most governments will act quickly but what will America do? This is the question all the world asks. The charter will have to have a two-thirds vote of the Senate. America played the major role in writing the covenant of the League of Nations 25 years ago as we have played the major role at San Francisco. Then in 1920 we turned about and destroyed the league. We might repeat this performance. The rabble-rousers and isolationists are already lying in wait. This is by far the most dominant question now before America.

Voice of Workers

"Now voices were heard at San Francisco. They were voices of horny-handed workers who work in mine, factory, forest and on the farm. Here in substance is what they said: 'We are through with war; it gives us nothing but suffering and death; it gets the workers nowhere. From now on it is butter and not guns for us. If we all use our heads no man need go hungry in this world of plenty. From now on it is to be an economy of welfare. You diplomats have presumed to run the world and see what a mess you have made of it. We men and women who work with our hands are going to have something to say. We can't do worse.' I attended a mass meeting in the city hall attended by 10,000 workers. The conference sat up and took notice. "Led largely by Commander Stassen we are to have in the new charter a provision for a trusteeship council that will take under its care the backward peoples. Molotov insists that they shall be promised ultimate freedom. At least backward peoples are not to be exploited. At San Francisco men talked of the trust of civilization. This is a great advance over the imperialism of the 18th and 19th centuries."

Committee Congratulated

At the close of Dr. Moore's talk, acting President Billie Wilson, presiding in place of President W. H. Limes who was ill, asked Attorney Ed Bush to give a response which he did. Bush declared that the program committee was to be congratulated upon bringing Dr. Moore here for a discussion of a subject that had been far from clear in the minds of many people. He complimented the speaker upon his able presentation of and explanation of conference questions which were giving Americans a great deal to think about."

Mrs. Ursula Thornhill conducted the business session of the Queen Esthers and Mrs. Harry Flint read devotionals. Several worthwhile plans were discussed by both classes and will be carried out in the near future.

A happy social hour followed the meeting with tempting refreshments served by the hostesses, Mrs. Harry Flint, Mrs. Robert Blake and Mrs. Flo Straley. Clever favors to represent miniature teapots, that had been made by Mrs. Straley, were admired by everyone.

Picnic Supper Is Final Meeting Until September for Class

Twelve members and four guests of the Loyal Daughters Class of the North Street Church of Christ met Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Wilbur Kier when she was assisted throughout the entertaining by Mrs. Bernice Duckwall. The party had been planned as an out-of-door picnic supper, but due to a drenching rain they found their places at small tables in the living and dining rooms.

After the supper hour, the president, Mrs. Ted Merritt, introduced Mrs. Duckwall to give the devotionals. At the conclusion of a short business meeting the members enjoyed a social hour of visiting, as this was the final meeting until they are resumed again in September, after summer adjournment.

At Beaufort I had my first and last lift in a civilian car, M. Dubut's, and I chatted with him in what I thought was passable French until I picked up another American at the next town. He was Staff Sgt. William J. The sergeant was given 24 hours to leave town, and made the most of it by going all the way to the states, where he joined the air force and eventually returned to France as crewman on A-20.

Do you feel headachy and upset due to poorly digested food? To feel cheerful and happy again your food must be digested properly.

Each day, Nature must produce about two pints of a vital digestive juice to help digest your food. If Nature fails, your food may remain undigested—leaving you headachy and irritable.

Therefore, you must increase the flow of this digestive juice. Carter's Little Liver Pills increase this flow quickly—often in as little as 30 minutes. And you're on the road to feeling better.

Da's na fijn, zunne!... Have a Coca-Cola

(SAY, THAT'S GREAT!)

...an American custom lands in Brussels

In Flemish, it's viendelijheid. In American, it's the plain, everyday word friendliness. Everywhere your Yankee doughboy goes, it comes from his heart in a good old home-town phrase, Have a Coke. Friendliness is bred in his bone and it bubbles out—like the bubbling goodness of Coca-Cola itself. Yes, the pause that refreshes with ice-cold Coke becomes an ambassador of good will... the old home spirit carried across the seas.

-Spying- On Sports By Hugh Fullerton, Jr.

By HUGH FULLERTON, JR.
NEW YORK, June 13.—(AP)—Nearly a month ago the ODT got together with the NCAA and other college athletic groups and announced a 15-point "voluntary" program for reducing travel. . . The first point was to localize and simplify schedules and an ODT spokesman pointed out: "The spirit of the program calls for immediate cancellation of many events already scheduled." . . . So far as football is concerned, there have been few, if any, signs of cancellation or simplification. The few schedules that have been announced seem to call for the usual number of long trips. . . Asa Bushnell, who hurriedly explains (1) That wartime schedules are slow coming in, (2) That there's not much room left for reduction except in the size of squads and (3) distances traveled by eastern teams aren't great anyway, adds the hope that the result of this program won't be "just a few nods of approval by athletic directors—in the direction of the other fellow." Well, is it?

Mich. Has Its Wish.
The Jackson, Mich., Kid Baseball School is being held this week with Ray Fisher, John Kobs and Jud Haymes from college coaching ranks and Ray Schalk, Bill Rogell and Wish Egan from the big leagues as instructors. . . Egan, the Tigers' scout, seems to be the guiding spirit in such activities in Michigan and sport scribe, Jay Fleming of Jackson, lists the following in addition to his local program: Kalamazoo—held school with Lou Fonseca as instructor; Muskegon—lining up program for more than 500 boys; Detroit—a 16-team league being formed; Flint—plans development of teams, aided by $1,500 check from Mott Foundation; Battle Creek—business men contributed $2,000 to set up six baseball centers with paid leadership; Bay City—plans six-club American Legion league; Dearborn—hopes to organize 12-team boys' league.

Cleaning the Guff.
Max Waxman, who staged a $100,000 boxing show last year for the Baltimore Police Pension fund, is lining up bouts for another big card August 13. He already has signed heavyweights Big Boy Brown vs. Johnny Allen and Midweight Johnny Finnazzo vs. Reedy Evans.

ROOM AND BOARD

By Gene Ahern

their usual fervor by losing 15 in a row.
Not since 1932 when Burt Shotton led them to the giddy heights of fourth place have the Phils failed to finish either seventh or eighth and seven times it was last.

It used to be the cash that was lacking and the club was operated with an idea of selling the choice players to opposing teams to balance the budget. That difficulty was removed when Bob Carpenter bought the Club. Now the Phils have plenty of dollar bills but can't get the talent.
Boston hung No. 15 on Fitz and his groggy crew yesterday, 10-0, for the Braves' eighth successive win, five of which have been over their old cell mates. New blood and new money are producing in the Hub to push the Braves up into the race only 3 1/2 games back of New York. Johnny Hutchings did the job on the Phils, a four hitter.

At the rate the Giants are tumbling, only an extended series with the Phillies will save their lead. Losing seven of their last eight since the incident of the $500 pitch by Bill Voiselle in St. Louis, the New Yorkers have seen their lead pared to a single game. Yesterday's 7-4 drubbing by Brooklyn ended the last victory streak they were nursing. Van Mungo's six straight pitching wins.

Pittsburgh's night triumph over Chicago, 9-3, boosted the Buccos up to within one length of the Giants as Al Gerbeuser, a refugee from the Phils, showed his relief by contributing four singles to the Pirates' attack in addition to throwing a nine-hitter at the Cubs.

Detroit regained the American League lead that changes hands every day and took a half game margin over New York by trimming St. Louis, 2-1 in 11 innings after Washington beat the Yankees 5-3.

Thornton Lee turned in the best pitching job of the day, a three-hit effort for Chicago against Cleveland but it took Bill Nagel's bases-loaded single in the last of the ninth to assure him a 1-0 edge. The veteran lefthander struck out 13 Indians.

Dick Siebert came through with a dramatic two-run homer in the 12th to give the Philadelphia Athletics a 7-5 triumph over the Boston Red Sox and Russ Christopher his 10th success.

The Cincinnati at St. Louis National League night tilt at which the National League 1944 pennant was to be unfurled was rained out.

More Amateurs Needed in Golf

WASHINGTON, June 13.—(AP)—Golf, like baseball, will turn to the youngsters for new blood after the war.

By the professionals' own admission, the game urgently needs better amateurs, like Bobby Jones, and the way to produce them is to organize the kids.

"If we're going to have another golden era on the links such as that which followed the last war, we've got to have more amateurs who can meet the top pros on even ground and win the National Open once in a while, Fred Corcoran, PGA tournament manager said.

Corcoran, through the PGA, is formulating plans for a national junior championship with boys 19 and under eligible.

Bing Crosby, the golfing-crooner and a universal favorite with the youngsters, has volunteered to put up a championship trophy and otherwise assist in conducting an annual tournament.

Holdout Canton Coach Signs Up for $4,100

CANTON, O., June 13.—(AP)—Herman (Bup) Reckwig will continue as Canton McKinley High School's football and basketball coach.

He ended his contract "hold-out" yesterday, signing for $4,100 annually after persuasion by some of the boys who will play on his teams next year. Supt. Jesse Mason reported. Reckwig had asked $4,500.

Luck May Decide Hot Race in AA

By The Associated Press
Right now, it looks like a lucky break now and then for any one of four teams may decide the American Association pennant race.

Only three games separate first from fourth place today in one of the hottest races in the league in recent years. Louisville still is on top, a half game ahead of Indianapolis, but the other clubs are close enough to take the top spot by virtue of a win streak.

The Colonels caught Julie Acosta of Milwaukee in a somewhat wild mood last night to score three runs in the first inning, and then went on to win, 4-2. At the same time, Indianapolis was beating Kansas City, 8-4, in a game called at the end of the eighth by rain, while Toledo was strengthening its hold on fourth by hammering the hapless St. Paul Saints, 8 to 3.

Beulah Park Feature To Be Wide Open

COLUMBUS, June 13.—A real free-for-all that will test the ability of the veteran railbirds to pick the right one looms for Saturday at Beulah Park in the seventh running of the $2500 Governor's Handicap.

At the route of one and one-sixteenth miles, the race is expected to draw an evenly-matched field of eight or 10 horses.

Favorites have won this race for the past five years. Only in the first running of the classic in 1939 did the public choice disappoint. That was when Bob's Boy, under the handling of Alfred Robertson, finished second to Francesco, ridden by Jack Long.

Francesco's time of 1:44 3-5 still stands not only as the record for the event but also as the track mark.

Saturday's renewal of the Governor's Handicap is expected to attract the J. W. Frye entry of Sangabi and Boston Lassie, G. J. Fleisch's I Lov Bridge, Mrs. Frank Johnson's Time Up, Miss Adriann Valentine's Total Victory, R. L. Jackson's Stingy Lady, Ralph Keene's Spectator and Eecway, and possibly two or three others.

The Governor's Day program will conclude Beulah's spring season of running races. Many of the horsemen and jockeys at the Grove City course will move to Hamilton for the 19-day meeting opening at that point Saturday, June 23.

President and General Manager Robert J. Dienst of Beulah Park today announced that he had filed an application with the state racing commission for approval of a 19-day fall session September 29 through October 20.

2-Horse Race In Preakness Is the Dope

By JOHN F. CHANDLER.
BALTIMORE, June 13.—(AP)—

There might be as many as a dozen thoroughbreds going to the post in the richest of all Preaknesses Saturday, but to the betting gentry it's strictly a two-horse affair between Pavot and Hoop, Jr.

Heavy horse to horse betting—that is, which of the two will lead the other home, and wagering on which one will be the favorite with the crowd as shown on the odds board at race time, is reporting to have absorbed the wise guys to an unusual degree.

Hoop, Jr., rates, of course, through his Kentucky Derby victory, while Pavot, the 1944 juvenile champion, picked up backing with a sparkling 1:59 1-5 workout at Pimlico yesterday over the full Preakness distance of a mile and three-sixteenths.

Another factor in bettors' minds was the disclosure that Eddie Arcaro would not ride Hoop, Jr., as he did in the Derby. Arcaro has a chore on Devil Diver at Belmont Saturday.

Harry Isaacs announced today that his Brookfield would not go, while it was questionable whether Col. C. V. Whitney's jeep would come down from New York. There also was a question about Bobant, from Bobanet Stable.

Mrs. W. G. Lewis' Darby Dieppe, third in the Derby, is expected to work out tomorrow, along with Christiana Stable's Alexis, another contestant at Louisville.

Others on hand are Col. E. R. Bradley's Burning Dream, a Derby runner, and Bail Bond; Charles S. Howard's Sea Swallow and Mrs. P. A. B. Widener's Polynesian.

Tigers Take Lead On Good Pitching

By FRANK KENESSON

DETROIT, June 13.—(AP)—It isn't the hitting that has the Detroit Tigers on top of the heap in the American League.

With the season nearly one-third gone the Banjo-hitting Bengals, with a second division team batting average of .240, are four and a half games out front of the New York Yankees and four games ahead of fourth place Boston, which boasts a team swat mark bordering on 270.

The reason is pitching, sharply reflected in the records which show that Detroit has won exactly half its 26 victories by one-run margins.

Detroit, playing for that big run, has been getting it with amazing consistency. And the pitching has made it stick.

To date the Tiger record in one-run decisions is 13 won, four lost.

ANOTHER BIG THREE MEETING ARRANGED PRESIDENT REVEALS

He expressed some concern when reporters sought to pin him down on detail as to the position of the London government.

The President reminded his questioners that Russia had done some very pleasant yielding on this and some other questions and that all should keep their heads.

The Russians, he said, are just as anxious to get along with us as we are with them.

Asked what would happen to the Polish exiled government if a unified Polish government is set up as a result of the Moscow conference, he said it would go out of existence since the meeting is to set up a new government in which all could participate.

The President was hearty in his praise of the work of Davies and Hopkins crediting the latter particularly with persuading the Russians to yield from their stand on the Big Five power veto at San Francisco. Asked if Hopkins' decision had anything to do with that, he replied: categorically it did.

He said Hopkins also discussed the recent arrest of 16 poles in Russia which brought about a halt to Polish issue negotiations at San Francisco.

Mr. Truman said he had no announcement about the arrested Poles at this time. He cautioned reporters repeatedly not to muddy the waters, asserting every effort is being made to work the problem out. There will be further discussion of the Polish situation at the Big Five meeting, he added.

He said he hadn't heard a report mentioned by one questioner that the London Polish government had declared it would have nothing to do with the meeting that starts Friday in Moscow.

The Chief Executive said Press Secretary Charles G. Ross also would accompany him to the Big Three meeting and that he would do everything possible to see that American newspapers get equality of treatment as to the conference developments, which in itself, he added, will necessarily be secret.

VETERANS' HOSPITALS NOT SO BAD AS CLAIMED, INVESTIGATORS ASSERT

mander of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, said today that a VFW committee still was investigating "conflicting stories" about the disposition of a World War I veteran's body at the Aspinwall, Pa., veterans' hospital.

Robert McConaughy, a Bridgeport, O., funeral director, had reported that the body of Joe Pezl of Bridgeport was released to him without clothing.

The 10-member committee returned last night after visiting the hospital and talking with Col. Kelso A. Carroll, its manager.

Neighbor, a member of the committee, said Carroll informed the committee it was a hospital practice to clothe bodies in a sheet before they were released.

Neighbor, who is mayor of Newark, added "there are a lot of conflicting stories" and "it seemed that some of the witnesses at the hospital were coached."

Corporal John Bovina, who is in charge of the hospital morgue, told the committee the body was clothed.

Louis L. Lacey, a Zanesville policeman and chairman of the committee, told newspaper men that "we don't see that Col. Carroll or the hospital was to blame at all."

Mayor Neighbor said later that Lacey spoke without consulting the committee and that his statement did not represent the committee's opinion.

"The nine other members of the committee," Neighbor added, "decided that the investigation was incomplete."

He remarked that the committee wished to obtain additional information from the Veterans Administration in Washington before making a report to the state encampment of the VFW.

OFFICIALS SILENT

CLEVELAND, June 13.—(AP)—Officials of two Ohio veterans' hospitals declined comment on reports yesterday by the American Legion and the Veterans of Foreign Wars that conditions were "generally poor" at their facilities.

They were Brig. Gen. William L. Marlin, Northern Ohio Veterans Administration manager, whose jurisdiction includes the Brecksville Hospital, and John H. Ale, manager of the Dayton hospital.

'SUNNY SIDE' UP FOR GI'S SOON

CHICAGO, June 13.—(AP)—G. I. Joes all over the world may soon have their eggs "sunny side up" after more than three years of the dried and canned variety.

The office of the quartermaster general said today eggs in the shell would be on their way to American soldiers shortly. Months of experimentation had perfected a packing case which would safely carry shell eggs thousands of miles overseas, even under roughest wartime handling.

PLANNING COMMISSION HERE ENDS ITS FIRST YEAR

ADVISORY GROUP MAY BE SET UP IN NEAR FUTURE

Projects Backed, Either Are Completed or Underway Now

The year old Fayette County Planning Commission can look back on an auspicious beginning in which the four projects it recommended were either completed or got underway.

Colin C. Campbell is the new president of the organization, succeeding Howard C. Allen who served as the head of the organization in its first year.

Here are the projects the planning commission recommended: a traffic survey of Washington by the State Highway Department; a water supply survey of Fayette County by the Ohio Water Supply Board; a new property road and drainage map of the county and a hospital for the county.

Right now the group proposes to set up an advisory committee to the FCPC which would include representatives from all organizations in the city and county. That system would give this county, in effect, the same planning facilities as those in Ross County, it was explained.

A similar planning commission by the city of Washington C. H. also is recommended with the hope that it eventually might be combined with the existing county commission.

Since its organization under state law May 29, 1944, the planning commission has discussed air field possibilities, park and recreational facilities, the county road system and county drainage problems, the inter-regional highway system nationally and in Fayette County, the traffic situation in Washington C. H., the objectives and possibilities of planning with representatives from the Franklin County Planning Commission.

The water supply in Fayette County with representatives from the Ohio Water Supply Board and the water resources branch of the USGS, the general railway situation concerned with planning with representatives of the B. & O. Railroad Company and the county hospital project with an administrative expert, an architect and the hospital committee here.

Members of the board are: Howard Allen, Jean Nisley, Robert E. Willis, Willard H. Perrill, Frank A. Holden, Walter E. Solars, Richard R. Willis, Arch O. Riber, Colin C. Campbell, Robert A. Craig, Thomas H. Parrett and Homer Miller.

The three county commissioners are automatically the nucleus of the board and they appoint other members. The county engineer is the permanent secretary.

CHARLES R. WEBB HEADS SABINA LION CLUBBERS

Charles R. Webb will take over as president of the Sabina Lions Club July 1.

He was elected at a meeting Tuesday night. Other officers named are: Everett Waddell, first vice president; Dr. Gordon Howell, second vice president; Clark Howard, third vice president; Robert Crane, secretary-treasurer; Rev. E. J. Meacham, tall twister; Homer Fannon, Lion Tamer and Ralph McPherson, J. C. Phelps, Harry F. Erick and Max Miller, directors.

NINE POUNDS CANNING SUGAR IS QUOTA HERE

Housewives May Start Making Applications for It Next Monday

Housewives here may get nine pounds of canning sugar per person instead of the eight expected early, rationing officials explained today.

There won't be any more sugar after those nine pounds though, the ration board warned. So if housewives are planning to put up other fruit later on in the summer, they will have to budget their allotment carefully.

Fayette County is better off as far as canning sugar is concerned than some other districts, it was said. Canning sugar rations in some other places are as low as five pounds.

That extra pound seemed certain after a district OPA meeting in Columbus, Tuesday night. The allowance per person is based on a uniform percentage of the amount issued a year ago and is settled for each individual district.

Applications for the canning sugar may be made at the ration board on West Court Street beginning Monday, it was pointed out.

The procedure for determining the amount of sugar each person is entitled to is a complicated one, it was explained by rationing officials. How much sugar as a whole will be available for canning is conjectural, but Mrs. Fayette County can bank on those nine pounds for each member of her family.

FARMERS IN NEED OF HELP WITH HARVEST

Many farmers are wanting assistance in harvesting their hay, and anyone who can spare a few hours to assist in the work will find their services welcome and may contact John Leland, at the Farm Bureau Office, who is placing farm labor as a member of the Farm Manpower Committee.

Help is badly needed, according to Leland, and every hour's assistance will help save the hay crop.

HOSPITAL FAVORED BY FOREST SHADE

Grange Sets Rural Life Sunday for July 1

Forest Shade Grange Tuesday night went on record as favoring a hospital in Washington C. H. after Loren Johnson spoke about the proposed hospital during the business session.

It also was decided that the Grange's Rural Life Sunday would be July 1. Members were urged to attend church before the picnic dinner at the Leesburg Park.

The juvenile Grange had charge of the lecture hour program which included music and readings. Refreshments were served after the meeting.

MONTGOMERY WARD

'UNBORN' BONDS TO BE HUNTED IN COUNTY NOW

Unfilled Stamp Books Are Source of Bonds To Help Meet Quota

There probably are "unborn" War Bonds in more than a few Fayette County homes.

Those "unborn" bonds are unfilled stamp books which, with the addition of a few dollars, would make a bond. They are not to be overlooked when men and women call on their neighbors to sell them other War Bonds.

Solicitors have found some stamp albums almost two years old which still were unfilled. The money invested in those war stamps is accumulating no interest and is doing no one any good, the workers said.

Some of the stamp books were started by school children and then, as interest lagged or as schools closed, they were left unfilled and put into unused desk drawers.

Others were started by parents who decided to invest their odd change in War Stamps and then later on let their project slip behind a little.

"Take your change in War Stamps" was a familiar slogan in many stores a year or so ago. But since then, the stores which did sell stamps have either discontinued sales or found their totals dropping far below that of the first few months of the war.

NORMAN ARMBRUST IS BACK IN STATES

He Is Expected Here Sometime Next Week

Flight Officer Norman Armbrust probably will be home by this time next week.

He is in Boston now, he wired his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Armbrust, and expects to come to Washington C. H. "in the next seven days."

Armbrust was the first Fayette Countyman to be captured by the Germans—he was a prisoner for almost two years. He was captured on July 26, 1943 and on May 17, his parents learned he was liberated.

F. O. Armbrust has been in the service since December, 1941, and has been overseas since April, 1943.

MEMORIAL HINTED FOR MADISON MEN

Good Will Grange Pays Tribute To Memory of Dead

A hint that Madison Township will build a memorial to its World War II servicemen was given when the Madison Good Will Grange met in the Grange Hall.

No mention as to what sort of monument it will be were revealed when Fred LeBeau, Grange master, spoke of it at the Grange meeting.

Mrs. Wayne Shobe took first place in the soya roll contest and Mrs. Ralph Hayes won second place.

A memorial service was held for the late President Roosevelt, who was a seventh degree Grange member and holder of a Silver Star certificate awarded for 25 years of membership. A candle to his memory was lighted by Miss Marilyn Hays. A similar tribute to Mrs. Elsie Smith, Mrs. Ada Lytle and Walter Huffman was made with Miss Jayne Bower lighting the candle.

Miss Wilma Melvin lighted candles to the memory of war dead—Pvt. Walter Neal, Pvt. Marion Stillings and Wendel Rolfe, U. S. Navy. Tribute to Civil War, Spanish American War and World War I veterans also were made by Mrs. John Van Schoyck, Miss Joanna Douglass recited "We Keep Memorial Day," "Our Flag" and "The Americans Come."

Honoring the unknown soldier, Miss Sarah Melvin lighted an other candle. Mrs. Homer Wilson played the piano during all the ceremonies.

Glass is one of the oldest known materials.
